Pastor's Page– Rev. Dr. Millie L. Kim

I hope that you had a wonderful Christmas and are ready to usher in a new year with new hope and great expectations. I would like to thank all of you for your Christmas greetings, cards, and gifts in this season. You were incredibly generous to me and our children, and I am so grateful! Thank you!

I must confess that I had a very harried and chaotic December, well, the whole year 2022 in fact, and have spent this week regretting and repenting of my sins and bad choices. I am sure you never do that. ☺ I would like the year 2023 to be a better year for me, my family, and for our church. My new year's resolution is summarized in John Wesley's three general rules: do no harm, do good, and stay in love with God. Wasn't it Tony Robbins who said, "Setting goals is the first step in turning the invisible into visible," Johan Cruyff, "Without a goal, you can't score," and Antoine de Saint Exupery, "A goal without a plan is just a wish"? We don't even have to look into secular sources. Our trusted book of wisdom says (read the whole chapter of Proverbs 16, if you can.), "Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established" (Proverbs 16:3), and "The human mind plans the way but the Lord directs the steps" (Proverbs 16:9). Also Ephesians tells us our ultimate goal, "I press on toward the goal, toward the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus. Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil" (Ephesians 5:15–16). So I hope and pray that you set a godly goal and press on in 2023.

One of the things I do every year (I am such a creature of habit.) is reading the Bible through. If you have not done it before, I wholeheartedly recommend it. What you get out of it each year is tremendously life changing. Do you know that reading scripture is a multivalent, multidimensional, and revelatory process? Not only do we learn things about what happened a long time ago, but we also learn about who God is and learn more about ourselves in the present. Depending on where we are in life, what we understand and what we get out of the Bible is different. But as I get older and wiser, instead of reading from my perspective and from my life experiences, I try to listen and receive what God is trying to tell me instead of what I am trying to tell God. I pray for the Holy Spirit so that scriptures shape and mold my life, my habits, my relationships, and my priorities instead of fitting scripture into my life and interpreting it the way I like to understand it. It is a powerful experience!

"So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!" (2 Corinthians 5:17)
Happy New Year! Blessed New Year!

Your Pastor,
Millie

North Georgia Conference to Pause Disaffiliation Process

Dear North Georgia United Methodists,

As we approach the window set by the appointive cabinet to receive disaffiliation requests using Book of Discipline paragraph 2553, it has become clear that there is a need for a pause in this process for our conference. It is the responsibility of conference leaders to ensure that the disaffiliation process, put into place by the conference board of trustees, is carried out with integrity and grace.

In its report to the North Georgia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church in June 2021, and again in June 2022, the conference board of trustees affirmed its commitment to the concept of the gracious exit. In particular, the trustees affirmed a desire for disaffiliations to be handled in a fair, transparent, uniform, and good faith manner that affirms the one universal church in service to Christ and honors the mission and ministry of all Christians.

The board of trustees, in consultation with the cabinet, the annual conference treasurer, the annual conference benefits officer, the director of connectional ministries, and the annual conference chancellor, worked diligently to develop, update, and implement a disaffiliation process that would fulfill the requirements of the Book of Discipline and the stated aspirations of the conference board of trustees and the Annual Conference.

However, the cabinet has discovered and observed that many local churches have been misled about the disaffiliation process and have been presented with information about the process, and about The United Methodist Church and its leadership, that is factually incorrect and defamatory. We have significant concerns about this misinformation and are well aware that it has the potential to do irreparable harm.

This information presented to members of local churches about disaffiliation has been outside the bounds of normal and acceptable civil discourse. It has not only been false and misleading but has been antithetical to the concept of a gracious exit or a commitment to honoring the mission and ministry of all Christians.

As a result of the misleading, defamatory, and false statements and materials shared with local church members by certain organizations as well as clergy and lay members of various churches and outside groups, we do not have confidence in the validity of upcoming church conference disaffiliation votes. After lengthy periods of discussion and consultation involving the cabinet, the board of trustees, and appropriate conference leadership, we have agreed that our Annual Conference cannot rely upon such votes for purposes of negotiating a gracious exit.

The ultimate step in the disaffiliation process is the ratification of disaffiliation agreements by the Annual Conference. However, because of the issues observed, the conference board of trustees is no longer confident it could recommend in good faith disaffiliation agreements to the Annual Conference at this time.

The appointive cabinet is therefore amending its previously presented policy and will not accept disaffiliation requests at this time nor will the conference board of trustees negotiate disaffiliation agreements.

The appointive cabinet, board of trustees, and bishop recognize the significance of this action. We reaffirm our commitment to honor and uphold the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church. We commit to walking alongside the clergy and laity of the North Georgia Conference as we together take this opportunity to re-set our focus on the mission of the church, to commit to deepening our focus on discipleship, and to get to know our incoming episcopal leader.

With just 15 months until the next session of the United Methodist General Conference, which will be held April 23 to May 3, 2024, in Charlotte, North Carolina, this pause will allow churches to gain more information about the real, rather than the false or hypothetical, future of our church.

We give thanks for all North Georgia United Methodists in all our varied contexts. We stand beside you knowing that pause and uncertainty are hard. We pray for you and your ministry daily as together we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Yours in Christ,
Bishop Sue Hauptert-Johnson
The Appointive Cabinet
The Conference Board of Trustees

Q&A

Why take this action now?

In recent months, District Superintendents holding informational meetings have encountered an astounding proliferation of misinformation in local churches. This misinformation is being intentionally deployed, is present in every district, and has the potential to cause irreparable harm. As we approach the time to take the next step in the disaffiliation process, it is clear to the district superintendents, bishop, and the board of trustees that the process cannot go forward with integrity at this time. We are ethically obligated to pause the process.

What is the misinformation?

The misinformation has come in the form of printed materials, PowerPoint presentations, websites, videos, emails, and social media posts. Some of the most pervasive misinformation and examples of a breach of integrity include:

- Clergy suggesting that members of one church would be willing to join another church to help push them over the threshold to disaffiliate.
- Clergy making presentations to congregations that are not their own, without the appointed pastor's permission, and in many cases without their knowledge, therefore, undermining their ministry.

North Georgia Conference to Pause Disaffiliation Process (continued)

- Church leaders communicating to members that "The UMC's theological impasse is rooted in our differing beliefs regarding the authority of the Bible, the interpretation of the Bible, its impact on how we live out our faith, and the Lordship of Jesus." This is untrue and is among the most widespread misinformation we've seen.
- Church leaders sharing that The United Methodist Church no longer believes in the resurrection of Christ. This is untrue.
- Churches holding secret meetings on this matter to which not all members are invited or equally informed.
- Presentations saying that in the future the UMC will force all churches to receive appointments of gay pastors, will force all clergy to officiate same-sex weddings, and that all churches must host same-sex weddings. This is untrue.
- Church leaders presenting disaffiliation as an opportunity to "own" church property. This is not the purpose of paragraph 2553 and it is an inappropriate use of this process.
- Church leaders communicating that North Georgia Conference leadership is not following the Book of Discipline. In fact, the North Georgia Annual Conference and its leaders have taken no actions in conflict with the Book of Discipline.
- Church leaders claiming that The Apostles Creed has been changed. This is untrue.
- Church leaders claiming that United Methodists no longer believe in the divinity of Christ. This is untrue.
- Church leaders claiming United Methodist seminaries are teaching a variety of unchristian material by non-Christian professors. This is untrue.

... and so on

How has the North Georgia Conference addressed the misinformation?

The North Georgia Conference has offered steady online and in-person access to accurate information.

- District Superintendents have held more than 200 information sessions over the past year.
- The website ngumc.org and, specifically www.ngumc.org/BeUMC, are updated regularly.
- The Conference has provided printable, sharable Q&As.
- The Conference has empowered informed laity to speak on the topic to local churches.
- Bishop Sue Hauptert-Johnson has held six recent regional gatherings with opportunities for questions and answers. She met with pastors for conversation. She has met with lay members of Annual Conference in every district. And she has met with individual United Methodist congregations.
- Clergy and laity of the North Georgia Conference shared their commitment to the church, directly countering the misinformation, through an Open Letter at www.ngumc.org/OpenLetter.

Didn't the bishop say North Georgia wouldn't question a church's conscience?

Since adopting the Disaffiliation Agreement in 2021, the bishop, cabinet, and board of trustees agreed that they assumed good faith and would not question the conscience of a church seeking disaffiliation. Their interest and commitment was to the integrity of the process. This path was affirmed by the United Methodist Judicial Council (read that decision). This gracious approach was an invitation to proceed with integrity.

Misinformation is present everywhere in our country. If we couldn't move forward because of the presence of misinformation could we ever accomplish anything?

Misinformation is not passively present in our churches, it is being intentionally deployed. There is no place for this behavior in United Methodist churches.

The bishop has said, "We are not trying to hold any church captive." Is this pause counter to her statement?

Reaching the point of pausing this process was not the intention or the desire of the cabinet, the bishop, or the board of trustees. This pause is a direct response to deceptive behavior and manipulative misinformation deployed in local churches.

What does this pause offer?

This pause offers churches an opportunity to re-set focus on the mission of the church, to commit to deepening our focus on discipleship, and to get to know our incoming episcopal leader, Bishop Robin Dease.

Is Bishop Dease aware of the pause?

Yes. Bishop Robin Dease, who will begin her assignment as bishop of the North Georgia Annual Conference January 1, 2023, is aware of this pause and why it is necessary.

What is next?

The next United Methodist General Conference has been announced for April 23 to May 3, 2024, in Charlotte, North Carolina. Following that meeting, the process will be revisited.

Foremost, however, is the continued vital and missional work of the church. There are hungry and hurting neighbors who need us and there is a world that needs to know the love of Jesus Christ. That work must never pause.

Installation of Bishop Robin Dease

The North Georgia Conference of The United Methodist Church invites you to a service celebrating the assignment of Bishop Robin Dease to the North Georgia Area of The United Methodist Church on Sunday, January 8, at 4:00 p.m. at Oak Grove United Methodist Church, 1722 Oak Grove Road, Decatur, Georgia.

Reception immediately following service.

Second Avenue United Women in Faith

The Second Avenue United Women in Faith will meet on Saturday, January 14, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. We will enjoy a delicious brunch followed by an interesting program presented by Millie (and her girls) about their experiences on El Camino de Santiago walk a few months ago. The cost is $5 per person. Please make reservations with Betty Crymes (706-936-1218) or Cindy Smith (706-346-0786).

El Camino de Santiago—literally the "Way of St. James"—is Europe's ultimate pilgrimage route. The commonly agreed-upon route begins at Saint Jean Pied de Port, France, and travels 500 miles through four of Spain's 15 regions, ending at the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela in Galicia. People from all walks of life—not necessarily only Catholics—travel it as a way to draw closer to God.

Legends says that St. James, Spain's patron saint, was sent to that area to preach the Gospel before he returned to Judaea and was beheaded in 44 AD. The El Camino de Santiago ends in Santiago de Compostela, where tradition says the body of Saint James the Apostle rests. Some say James' disciples shipped his body to the Iberian Peninsula for burial, but it was shipwrecked and washed ashore covered in scallops. Others say an angel brought James' body back and a groom who was saying his vows on the beach at the time ended up covered in scallops after his spooked horse dragged him into the water. Either way scallops are a symbol for pilgrims along the way.

El Camino de Santiago was referred to as Finisterae (Land's End in Latin) when Romans used the path as a trade route. The French also referred to it as Voie lacte'e (the Milky Way) because of the galaxy is overhead seems to point the way. This route may have also been a way for people in the Middle Ages to do penance—or even a sentence for civic crimes, not that walking it automatically gets you into heaven! While is used to be a dangerous route for travelers, today, it is well-traveled and dotted with many quaint villages along the way.

I hope everyone had a good Christmas and pray blessings on you all in the New Year.
Looking forward to seeing you on January 14th!

Upper Room

January-February Upper Room daily devotionals are now available at the church. Plan to pick yours up on Sunday or stop by the church during office hours. If you need JoAnn to mail you a copy (either Large Print or Regular size), please call her at the church office (706-234-6406) or email her (2ndave@bellsouth.net).

Blessings and Gratitude

Thank you for your prayers. I am feeling better and I know that it is because of your prayers. I am so grateful to have such a loving church family. I know that God hears our prayers and again, thank you all for praying for me during my recent surgery and now, my recovery. It's times like these that really remind us of what we have and what we can do when we all join together. Thank you again, I only hope that one day, I can give back as much as I've been given.

Love and Blessings, Lee Upshaw

Dear Friends,
Thank you for your recent donation of $250 to The Salvation Army of Rome. Your church members were so helpful and generous to help us collect much needed items for our Christmas food boxes and our food pantry. We look forward to working with you more in the future and would love the opportunity to come speak to a group in your church about the programs and ministries of TSA.

This year, The Salvation Army has had many opportunities to provide assistance to many of the most vulnerable people in our communities through disaster service, Vacation Bible Schools, our new Pathway of Hope program of Social Services assisting families in crisis, taking children to Summer Camp, and all our Social Services programs of food, shelter, and rent/utility assistance. We are thankful that our supporters allow us to continue to serve in our community in Jesus' name.

Merry Christmas,
Captain Tim Blevins, Corps Officer/Pastor
Captain Paula Blevins, Corps Officer/Pastor

Dear Second Avenue Church Family,

Many thanks from your staff for the wonderful expressions of love and gratitude that are bestowed on us during the holidays and throughout the year. Second Avenue UMC is a wonderful place to work and worship.

Blessing to you all,
Rev. Millie, JoAnn, Susan, Paula, Emily

Dear Second Avenue,

Again you have shown your love and compassion for our congregation and our children. We appreciate all of your attention and the 'piles of presents and precious goodies.'

Our love,
Dakota, Jesse, and Olivia Jean Laney and one proud great "Granny" (Betty Albers)

With Deepest Sympathy

James Seaborn Burton

December 5, 1941 – December 9, 2022

It is with deepest sympathy that we share with you that our friend and brother in Christ, Jim Burton, passed away on Friday, December 9. Please be in prayer for Gerrie, Cindy, Nancy & Ralph, Jean, and all the family.

To 'be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord' but we will miss him here in our midst.

Charitable Distributions During 2022

Early in the year, we were able to send socks and underwear to the men's and women's shelters.

Starting in March and for the remainder of the year, we were able to collect and send to Salvation Army more than 200 food items, 100 articles of clothing, 200 personal care items, 80 towels/washcloths, and 100 bottles of Gatorade and water and more. We also delivered to Salvation Army a check for $250, representing two donations that had been given specifically for the Salvation Army project. The money was used toward their Angel food boxes.

Many items as well were collected and delivered to the Activities Director at Etowah Landing Nursing Home for their 26 residents most in need. We supplied personal care items, socks, pajamas, fluffy throws and crocheted blankets, devotional books, puzzles, and treats, among other useful items. Cash donations totaling $300 were received to purchase items needed to complete the project.

How amazing is that! What a loving and caring congregation we have at the corner of 8th Street and Second Avenue. Let's remember also the special projects completed by men's and women's groups, the Tuesday crochet group, and other related missions projects. Smiles and shouts of joy all around.

As we begin 2023, I hope you will share your thoughts of where our good works can be felt directly in our community. Let's do something good!

Nina Wheeler, Missions Coordinator

Bible Study "Walking the Lands" Resumes

---

"Walking the Bible Lands" meets on Wednesdays at 2:00 p.m. We will study with Dr. Wayne Stiles on Biblical Geography and its significance.

Experience like never before the locations we know from the Bible - places like the Mount of Olives, the towns of Nazareth and Bethlehem, and so much MORE! Not only that, Dr. Stiles will also provide us with insight and context every step of the way, so that we can connect with everything we learn on a deeper, personal level. We may have the same, amazing realization he did after his first trip to Israel: our faith is based on real events that happened in real places that we can see and experience. It's a humbling feeling, and he hopes to share it with you in "Walking the Bible Lands."
