Greetings From an Old Friend

This week we received the following email from Rev. David Wiseman after visiting the church website, reminiscing on the summer his family pastored Second Avenue.

Name: Rev. David Wiseman

Email address: davidwiseman1@sky.com

Subject: Thirty years ago!

Dear Old Friends,

Greetings from the old country! Some of you will remember us, most, I imagine, will not! Thirty years ago in 1990, I shared in a pastoral exchange with your then minister, Dan Crawford. Dan and Jane came to England (to Bournemouth), whilst we came to Rome, to stay with you. "We" being my wife Margaret, and our three children, Rebecca (then 17), Ruth (then 10) and Christian (then 8). It was a memorable summer and we had some delightful experiences with you all at Second Avenue.

Just to set your memories working, I remember well, Bob Henderson (choirmaster), Sara Autry, Mary Nell Vann (and E.T!) and Joe Tarpley. Even more so CB Stillwell (who suffered a heart attack within 2 weeks of our arrival. I sat by his hospital bedside and held his hand at 2 a.m. one morning!), dear Iva Chapman who was my Church Secretary keeping me on the straight and narrow path! We shared many events together. And maybe most of all Randy and Vicki Embree, with whom their children Chad and Abby struck up a close relationship with our two, Christian and Ruth. Some years after, they came over to stay with us and tour England and Scotland with our two!

Delighted to see so many old familiar names are still at the centre of things, 30 years later, at Second Avenue—Cindy Smith, Scotty Edwards, Beth Gibbons, Betty Albers, Greg Gaston, Jim Burton, I remember you all! And dear Paula Jones still occupying the organ seat! Well done, Paula! Margaret and I are now retired in Skipton, North Yorkshire (I am 80!). And our three children have all grown and flown the nest—Rebecca teaches in Kuwait (with our grandsons, Dylan and Reuben), Ruth is in Manchester with our granddaughter Elsie (aged 3), and "little" Christian is in Melbourne, Australia, now Dr. Christian Wiseman, a general practitioner, with our youngest grandchild, Louis. I haven't mentioned their various partners, but all three are happily married.

Before we arrived in Rome(1990), we had shared in exchanges with Haywood (Cal), Pasadena (Cal) and Santa Cruz (Cal). Afterwards, we exchanged with Houston(1993), Greenville (S. Car. in 1996) and Little Rock in Arkansas—all memorable experiences which we remember with pleasure. We often talk of you. Seem to have run out of space!

Our love,

David & Margaret Wiseman

An letter from Rev. David Wiseman took me down memory lane. Thirty years ago I was a college student at Emory, and to say, “Everything was so wonderful!” was an understatement. I had never anticipated meeting such world renown people (President Carter was one of my professors.) and I had never thought I would be in such a learning environment. I was in nerd heaven. It was the best three and a half years in my life. After college I was recruited by Dr. Hendrickus Boers in Candler School of Theology, and there I won the prestigious fellowship to go over to study in Goettingen, Germany. I was the first non-white person to receive the fellowship at the time, and I am proud to say that I opened the gate so that other non-white students could follow after me.

Germany was tough. In all aspects. One thing that really kept me sane was faith and traveling. As a country, Germany was one of the leading countries in Europe to encourage young people to travel. There were all kinds of discounts, and students could travel with very little money. One of the ways was the “Weekend Train Ticket” which allowed 5 or 6 to travel together all over Germany and it was less than $20 for all 5-6 passengers. In the US, it would be considered a nuisance or even breaking the law, but they allowed students to sleep in the courtyards, train stations, and public squares. I would not have done it alone but with 5-6 students together, it was fun!

The greatest adventure I had was to walk the northern trail of the Camino de Santiago with about a hundred students. We started in Dortmund, Germany walking along the coast, and we walked all summer. I did not get to the destination because I had to come home to the US, but it was the best summer I had in my entire life. Was it easy? No. I fought blisters, hip pain, back pain, leg pain... you name it. But it really helped me come out of my shell and become free from all the inhibitions and prohibitions I had put on myself all throughout my life. “Girls should not relieve themselves in the woods. You must find a bathroom!” this was out the window on the very first day, for example. I learned to trust people more readily and to be honest, without the radical hospitality of the people we met along the way, we could not have survived.

One night, we were extremely tired because we covered over 20 miles of pavement that day. I was exhausted since as an American I had too much weight in my backpack (like deodorant, shampoo, conditioner, sunscreen, camera, book, etc.). It was a hot day and I was burned to a crisp and drenched in sweat. A bunch of girls, including myself, were assigned to spend a night in a monastery run by nuns of the Verbum Dei order. The moment we walked in, they greeted us with a warm supper. In our sleeping room, they had prepared warm water for washing (they did not have a hot water heater so they had boiled it for us), cookies and warm milk for snacking. The next day we were stuffed with a hardy breakfast and they even packed egg sandwiches for lunch. It was totally free since we did not pay anything. I was so struck with emotion that holding that egg sandwich in my hand, I cried tears (I was tired of liver paste by then). I did not have much money but I gave about $50 to a nun. And she would not accept it by saying, “You are a traveling pilgrim. You will need that money along the way. Put it in your pocket.” That time I cried tears of gratitude for their radical hospitality.

Once you experience such radical hospitality, you never forget it and it transforms you in such a profound way. Reading from Rev. Wiseman’s letter, I think you changed his life profoundly as well! I am so very proud of Second Avenue! And I pray that we will continue to practice radical hospitality to those who don’t pay us back, who can’t pay us back.

Love,
Your Pastor

Blessings and Gratitude

Do you often think what it would be like if we did not have our God and our church family in these trying times? I do, and I'm grateful for what we have. Thank you for all your efforts and sacrifices.

Genny Alexander

Dear Precious Church Family,

Thank you so much for your many acts of kindness during our bout with Covid-19. Your prayers, calls, cards, and food are greatly appreciated.

Blessings and love to you all,
 Margaret, Maddie, and Reese Gibson

Dear Millie,

Just wanted to thank you and our wonderful church family for all the prayers and cards. August 24 we get to go back to Emory in hopes that Bill gets on the transplant list, so any extra prayers on that subject would be greatly appreciated. Glory to God.

Love,
 Cindy & Bill Pharr

Dear Second Avenue UMC Members,

Thank you so much for the cards, flowers, prayers and kind expressions of sympathy following my dad's passing. It meant so much that you took the time to prepare food for us. It was delicious. My dad loved Second Avenue and his church family and friends. Your thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated and will always be remembered by our family.

Sincerely,
 Lisa Butler (daughter of Bill Carver)

My dear church family,

Thank you so much for all your support, kindnesses, love, and especially your prayers during my recent surgery and recovery. I feel so blessed to be part of such a caring and thoughtful group of church friends. I really appreciate all you did for me - it all helped me so much. Please continue your prayers as I move forward with my recovery. May God bless you all.

I love all of you,
 Darlene Wallace

Wesley Woods Mother's Day Offering

It's not too late to give to the Conference-wide Wesley Woods Mother's Day Offering. Your gifts are an essential source of funds for providing loving care to residents of the 10 Wesley Woods communities in our Conference. Due to Covid, they didn't receive the amount of funds they normally do. Please pray about helping with this wonderful ministry.

United Methodist Women News

Dear UMW,

It is hard to believe that yet another month has passed, and we are still not able to have in-person meetings of UMW. I appreciate all of you who have continued to support the breakfast program at Ruth and Naomi House these past months. We will continue to send them a check each month to help defray the cost for food, but for the next few months, please send your check to the church instead of to Nancy Davis. Make it out to the church and be sure you label it "Ruth and Naomi House," and JoAnn will cut one check to send for us.

Please keep Nancy in your thoughts and prayers as she is going through a difficult time right now. Since the community spread of COVID is currently still high, I am not sure when we will be able to resume our Saturday morning meetings. We will just take things one month at a time for now. I pray that all of you are staying safe and healthy.

Cindy Smith, UMW President

Bishop Names Ministerial Education Fund as the 2020 Annual Conference Offering

---

From the Conference website:

Bishop Sue Hauptert-Johnson has named the North Georgia Conference Ministerial Education Fund as the 2020 Annual Conference Special Offering.

The Ministerial Education Fund provides scholarships to seminary and undergraduate students, course-of-study for local pastors, and license to preach school.

Aligning with the theme of the 2020 North Georgia Annual Conference, "One in Ministry to All the World," this fund is one way United Methodists can show our support to those called to serve as clergy. Together we can help minimize debt of North Georgia United Methodists beginning in ministry.

Grants from the Ministerial Education Fund help pay tuition and other costs for future clergy who will serve our churches or go on to be chaplains, teachers and missionaries.

MEF is a general church apportioned fund of which 25 percent is retained by our conference. But 100 percent of the giving to the Annual Conference Special Offering will go to United Methodist seminary and course of study students in the North Georgia Conference.

Churches are invited to collect the offering any time before or after the 2020 Annual Conference. Individuals are encouraged to give through your local church. Churches can make checks payable to the North Georgia Conference and marked for Fund #1147 - AC Special Offering.

Please give generously to the Annual Conference Special Offering.
